Bethel Christian Academy's

Principal's Perspective

Yesterday was our February Parent Connect night. Pastor Edgar, kids pastor at Bethel Christian church, did an excellent job sharing practical ideas to disciple your kids! We were blessed by all those in attendance, but know that many more would have liked to be there but could not. Don't worry! We were able to record his talk and I will work to get it uploaded to our Parent Connect page this weekend along with the handouts that he had for us. Be sure to put March's on your calendar as Mrs. Burnett's mom (former preschool director & pastor) will be our guest speaker. She will be sharing about Parenting with Personalities. You won't want to miss it March 20 from 7:00-8:00. Watch for an email from Mrs. Burnett with more information as the date approaches.

We will also be hosting our second Mama Bear Apologetics book discussion on February 27 from 6:00-8:00. This book is amazing! If you would like to purchase one let us know, or you can find it on Amazon. Even if you missed the discussion on chapters 1-2, you still have time to catch up and join our discussion on chapters 3-5. Even if you missed the first discussion, we would love to have you join us! You do not need to be a "Mama" to attend!

One thing that Pastor Edgar said last night was that we have to be intentional about discipling our kids! I 100% agree with him. There are plenty of people and things across society that are intentionally targeting our kids! One of the reasons we do Parent Connect and Mama Bear is to provide you with resources to be the parents God has called you to be! Parent Connect is probably my favorite new addition to our school this year, and I am excited to see what effect it has on the way we as parents fulfill our calling, and how it will change the futures for our kids!

Thanks and God Bless!
